WRITES FROM MIDWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hester of Morton, have received the following letter from their son John, concerning the tidal wave which took Midway Island last week.

John Hester

April 3, 1946

Dear Mom and Dad:
Well, I hope this finds you all OK. I guess I am about right. I guess you have been worried about me, if it has been in the papers, and if it hasn't been in the papers, you are just as well off. A large tidal wave took Midway night before last about 5 o'clock and there isn't much left out here. Just a few buildings and that is about all. It took the barracks, one of the stores and about everything else that got in the way. All of us boys sat work in the stores are sleeping in them. Lucky for us. I got all my clothes and things like that. We knew about an hour before it hit here, that gave us a little time to get ready, there weren't but about five guys that got killed. The rest of us on the island are still alive. I guess you are wondering about me, well, I have my left arm in a sling, it isn't broken, but it is sprained and it is really sore. I don't feel very good either, so I can't write much.

The hospital is full of guys and there are a lot of them that had to be flown to Pearl Harbor for treatment. I guess I got out pretty lucky. The only thing that saved us, is there is a large hill on the island and every body was on it when the wave came. We didn't have room on the hill for anything else so we had to leave our trucks at the bottom, so my truck is out of shape now. The wave was about 10 feet high and traveling at least 200 miles per hour when it hit my truck, it just raised the front end and it fell backwards.

About a foot of water came over the top of the hill, but we could stand that pretty well, it threw us all down. There is still about 6 inches of water on the island in places. It took the postoffice out, so there are no stamps and I don't know when I will get to mail this.

Don't worry about me, because I have good care along with the other guys. Another thing that saved us was that it came in day light. If it had come at night none of us would be here today.

There will be no mail in here for a couple of weeks because the wave took our mail at Pearl Harbor. Just keep writing and don't worry about me.

With lots of love to all,
Johnny.

John is manager of Third Ship Service Stores on the island.

CHANGCHUN FALLS

CHUNGKING, April 20 (UP)—Communist troops today consolidated their grip on the Manchurian capital of Changchun, first major communist conquest of the Chinese Civil War, while Gen. George C. Marshall tried to bring about a armistice.

Fears were increasing about the fate of 10 Americans—five correspondents and five U. S. army men—who were in Changchun during the final days of street fighting and have not been reported since the city fell. Maj. Robert Higg of Chicago, assistant military attaché, and his staff of four were with the correspondents, observing the fighting. Reynolds Packard of the United Press was one of the missing correspondents.

VICTORY SHIP BRINGS RELIEF TO EUROPEANS

WAR BOAT WAS NAMED AFTER DEPAUW UNIVERSITY

The U. S. S. DePauw Victory, victory ship built during the war and named for DePauw University, is continuing its humanitarian work with the end of the war by providing relief in the form of livestock for war-ravished Europe, it has been announced by the CPS Reserve.

Joining some thirty ships used regularly as livestock carriers and a string of other victory vessels, the S. S. DePauw is now in the hands of the "Sea-Going Cowboys" as an outgrowth of the "Heifers for Relief" plan originated by Dan West of Goshen, Ind., and fostered by the Brethren Service Committee of the Church of the Brethren. Today other churches and organizations are aiding the plan.

Ships sailing regularly from Portland, Me., New York, Baltimore, Newport News, Norfolk, New Orleans, Galveston and Houston, Tex., are transporting thousands of needed livestock to Europe. Another ship named for an American institution of higher learning to join the DePauw in this work is the S. S. Harvard Victory.

Livestock is being shipped at present to Greece, Yugoslavia, Albania, Poland, and Czechoslovakia. The first shipment went to Czechoslovakia in mid-February. Heifers, mares, mules and chickens are now being transported.

The S. S. DePauw Victory was commissioned in California on Feb. 7, 1945.

Take Gas From Putnam Farmer

It could have been, and maybe it was the two men and the black Oldsmobile sedan which the law of Indiana was looking for, which scared the wits out of Alfred Patrick, one mile south of New Maysville Saturday afternoon.

As Mr. Patrick was working in one of his fields near the highway, the sedan stopped and two men climbed out and demanded the gasoline from the can which Mr. Patrick was carrying on his tractor. He was told to stay on his side of the fence as the men emptied the contents of the can into their automobile. They left in a hurry with the gas, can and funnel.

Mr. Patrick hurried to the home of William Ader and telephoned the Putnamville State Police Post and told them he thought the car was the same one involved in the Ladoga murder case. The car was being driven without license plates.

State police and detectives immediately swarmed into New Maysville, searching out every possible clue. All bridges for miles around, especially the ones across the Wabash River, were closely watched for hours after the report of the New Maysville farmer.—Danville Gazette.

QUITE A RECORD

Howard J. Gough, living near Roachdale is 35 years old and is married and has three children. He has driven a Farm Bureau oil truck for 17 years and in addition has two farm hands who operate their 300 acres of land. In the year 1945 he sold 376,000 gallons of fuel, 6,000 gallons of motor oil and 7,100 lbs. of grease. He serves 236 customers and drove 32,000 miles averaging approximately 12 gallons of fuel per mile driven. The average fuel deliveries per serviceman is 168,000 per year.

His brother George Gough has been helping him since Feb. 28 this year. He had been in the service for 3 years. For four weeks it has been 12 and 1 o'clock at night before he gets home.

CAR RECOVERED

The Jasper state police post reported Saturday that a car stolen from Chloe Klines, of Cloverdale, had been recovered. With the stolen car was Charles Richardson, who escaped from the penal farm, several days ago.

RETIRE AFTER 39 YEARS IN BUSINESS

After 39 years as a Greencastle business man, Andrew Turner has retired.

A widely known and respected citizen of Greencastle, Mr. Turner until a few days ago operated the Greencastle Poultry Market at 602 north Jackson street. Mr. Turner was active in this business for the past eight years.

Before going into business for himself, Mr. Turner was a manager for Havens Brothers before that business was liquidated.

Mr. Turner's many friends wish him many years of happiness in his retirement.

Betty McKamey Was Author Of Winning Essay

The following essay on the "Benefits of County Library Service," was written by Miss Betty McKamey, a junior in the Reelsville high school, for which she received first prize of $25 from the Putnam County Federation of Clubs, sponsor of the project.

Benefit of Co. Library Service

The necessity of county libraries was first recognized in Scotland by the Education Act of 1918. Since, such rural library systems have been financed by the Carnegie Trustee in Great Britain. These libraries have been a great success and have been set up all over the world. In the United States there are several County Libraries in each state. In Indiana there are twenty-three libraries in successful operation. So why can't there be one in Putnam County?

The schools would be greatly improved by county library service because the students would have access to more books and perhaps some that they couldn't get otherwise. The children would all have an equal chance in getting the books to read. Some people who enjoy reading, but couldn't afford to buy every book or pay a state library, could read the books they are interested in.

In these libraries there are reading rooms in the towns or cities; but for the ones that are not able to attend, these libraries can order the books they want or get them from those books that are carried around by automobiles.

These libraries are especially important to the schools and homes because of the references, histories, biographies and stories of important events.

In having a county library students will take more interest in reading different kinds of books. They will assume more responsibility in taking care of books. The students learn to picture things better in their minds. In the school library they may not have the necessary books for the different subjects in which a boy or girl is interested and it may not be possible to get to a state library. In a county library one could read interesting books such as good fiction, for example, A Lantern in Her Hand, Miss Bishop, National Velvet, The Good Earth, or Dr. Sevier, all written by authors such as George Cable, Pearl Buck, Beas Aldrich and Enid Bafual; non-fiction, such as Skyward, by Richard Byrd, North to the Orient by Anne Lindbergh and the Americanization of Edward Bok, written by Edward William Bok. You can also read biographies including Champions of Democracy by Joseph Cottler, and Seven Iron Men by Paul Henry De Kruijff. Travel books like this one would be enjoyed: Around the World in Eleven Years by Patience, Richard and John Abbe; essays such as Adventures in Friendship by Ray Baker. You can also read histories like Only Yesterday by Frederick Allen and The Pony Express by Arthur Chapman.

You may read books on hobbies, sports, science and nature, also books of poems by Carl Alfred Tennyson and many others. You can read about your favorite sport and find some good points that will help you in the game. Older people who didn't have a chance to get much

"GOODBY, I'LL BE BACK"

AMERICA HAS BEEN GOOD to Giuliano Cabbia, 9. Adopted by U. S. soldiers in Italy and brought to the U. S., the blind youngster underwent an operation at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, with the result that part of his sight has been restored. Waving goodbye to New York from the deck of the S. S. Algonquin, the lad is sailing to his native country for a visit with his parents, after which he will return to the U. S. for more treatments. With him is Pfc. Howard A. Gorgas, Montpelier, O., his veritable GI "daddy," who will return to the U. S. for discharge, once the child is returned to his parents. Of the funds subscribed by the Yanks, Giuliano will have $2,400 left in the kitty when he lands in Italy. (International)

NORTHWOOD COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY QUICKENS AS YOUNGSTERS CONDUCT POPULAR EMPORIUM

Northwood was the scene of considerable commercial activity on Friday while "Sonny" Brooks and Doyle McKeehan profited therefrom. The busy selling was conducted in the spacious yard on the property of Sonny's father, H. H. Brooks.

The store may best be classified as a department emporium since a variety of articles were offered to the eager buying public. Some of the wares were pre-war quality which enhanced the demand of their customers. Toys, marbles, four pre-war metal soldiers, boys hats, belts, kitchen knives, B. B. bullseye targets, fishing kit, and a set of cardboard cars were displayed for sale. Harriett and Anne Brooks and Tommy Turk were among the sales clerks on duty.

Nancy Barnaby purchased a bead set, gun and holster and a bowling alley. Sandra Allan bought the metal soldiers and a girl scout belt. Tommy Turk, clerk, couldn't resist the metal train light. Judy Arnold was enthralled with the Mutt and Jeff B. B. puzzle and Dorothy Ann Boyd purchased some B. B. bullseye targets. Many other Northwood residents are listed among the happy purchasers.

Doyle netted $1.18 and Sonny netted $1.19. (Sonny got the extra penny because he was on duty longer.) No report was made on the amount of Federal withholding taxes and income taxes, state gross sales tax, and other federal, state and city taxes.

No O. P. A. officials were seen in the neighborhood during the morning but some may have been around. We feel sure, however, that not many ceilings were reached or violated. In fact, we are unable to quote the ceiling price on a Mutt and Jeff B. B. puzzle or even a bullseye target.

Greencastle merchants are looking to their laurels and, no doubt, will study the merchandising principles employed by these young, enterprising Greencastle merchants.

FLOOD CONTROL MEASURE PASSED

The United States senate late Friday approved a flood control measure carrying an appropriation of $33,000,000 and sent it to President Truman for his signature. It calls for the expenditure of the above sum for navigation and flood control projects.

It is believed the Mill Creek dam site appropriation might be in this sum allotted the War Department for flood control in this area.

Latest Wire Flashes

DENISON, Tex., April 20 — (INS)—Today is "Eisenhower Day" in the Lone Star State, and about 45,000 Texans were expected to crowd into Denison to honor the return of a native son—General of the Army and Chief of Staff Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Probably no one will enjoy the visit more than the General himself. He hasn't been in Denison since a short while after his birth in a two-story frame house with three dormer gables, and that was more than 53 years ago.

DETROIT, April 20—(INS)—Assistant U. S. Atty. Joseph C. Murphy today announced a new inquiry into another million dollar alleged black market in used cars involving dealers and buyers in western states.

Murphy said that the new investigation "is far from complete, but we have reason to believe it will culminate in sensational revelations."

He added that the nature of the investigation precluded further elaboration.

WASHINGTON, April 20 — (INS)—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach lacked assurances from the United Mine Workers today that his efforts to obtain a resumption of soft coal negotiations next week would be successful.

A spokesman for the mine owners asserted that the industry negotiators will abide by their original pledge to return to Washington upon a call from the government, but UMW President John L. Lewis maintained an enigmatic silence.

Schwellenbach announced after a conference with President Truman that he hoped to meet separately with the parties Monday or Tuesday in an effort to renew negotiations later in the week for a settlement of the 20-day strike of 400,000 miners.

GREENFIELD, Ind., April 20

The dead are—Harrison Sears, 20, of Lizton, Ind., and Pvt. Marvin Zelle. Pvt. Zelle's address was withheld by army authorities until next of kin had been notified.

CHICAGO, April 20—(INS)—

County and state police today continued their investigation of the mysterious shooting of 12-year-old Nancy Lowrey, of Des Plaines, who died last night in Evanston of a bullet wound in the head. Nancy was felled by a .22 calibre bullet as she was picnicking in the forest preserve near her home.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 20

(UP)—Authorities said today that Howard Pollard, 24, had confessed the butcher-slaying of a crippled cab driver whose body was found in a burning farmhouse several miles from where the hands and feet were discovered.

Sheriff Otto W. Petit said Pollard admitted the fatal shooting of Leland Paul Miller, whose body was found in an abandoned farmhouse near Ladoga, Ind., last week. Petit said that Harry Adams, 22, a "buddy" of Pollard, was arrested for questioning after Pollard's statement implicated him.

Petit said Pollard admitted shooting Miller while the two were drinking at Pollard's home April 10.

Jail Was Busy Place Friday

James Beaman was lodged in the Putnam county jail Friday night on a hit-and-run charge. It was alleged that Beaman, while driving on Locust street, struck several parked cars.

Roy Ash, Chester Bruner and Cecil Saylor were also put in jail Friday on charges of public intoxication.

Claude Kinzer and Edgar Elkins, Bloomington, arrested and jailed for intoxication, were released when they paid their fines.

WHEAT REDUCED 25 PER CENT BY GOVERNMENT

BREAD AND OTHER PRODUCTS CUT AS U. S. FOOD PLEDGE

WASHINGTON, April 20—(UP)—The government decrees that Americans must eat at least 25 per cent less bread and other wheat products for a while so this country can be sure of meeting its food pledges to hungry peoples of the world.

Coupled with this sweeping order was an offer of a 30-cent-a-bushel bonus to farmers who will make precious wheat and corn available for immediate shipment overseas. This was designed to draw out large grain stocks now stored on farms.

These dramatic actions emphasized the administration's deepening concern with the spectre of global starvation, a concern underscored by President Truman when he told an international radio audience last night that America could not turn its back on the world's misery.

The government was shifting from a completely voluntary program of food conservation to a more hard-fisted plan to control the flow of food to the market at the processor level.

The new plan will permit millers to process only 75 per cent of the amount of wheat milled during the corresponding period of 1945. Any flour in excess of that quota must be sold to the government for export.

The order is effective Monday and will continue in force until June 30 unless extended.

As a result of the orders, bakers planned to ask the OPA for a retail price increase of one cent per pound on bread.

Mr. Truman asked the people to step up their voluntary efforts to conserve food. He suggested that Americans go on a European "starvation diet" two days a week to avert "the greatest threat of mass starvation in the history of mankind."

"We would not be Americans," Mr. Truman said, "if we did not wish to share our comparative plenty with suffering people. I am sure I speak for every American when I say the United States is determined to do everything in its power to relieve the famine of half the world."

His solemn warning was supported by former President Herbert Hoover who spoke from Cairo. He said his tour of famine areas had convinced him that upwards of 150,000,000 Europeans plus countless millions in the Orient faced starvation.

Bread Poisons Nazi Prisoners

FANKFURT, Germany, April 20—Nineteen hundred German prisoners of war were poisoned by arsenic in their bread early this week in an American camp and all are "seriously ill," United States headquarters announced tonight.

The mass poisoning struck down the prisoners in Stalag 13 near Nuernberg, but no deaths were reported.

Col. S. T. Williams of Denton, Tex., a regimental commander, said the poison was found on the crust. He said the arsenic might have been sprinkled on shelves against cockroaches and thus have got on the bread.

The bread for captured soldiers was obtained from a local German bakery by contract "in accordance with normal procedures," the announcement said. Police stood guard at the bakery to prevent German civilians from buying any bread there. Counter-

WINNING ESSAY

education can obtain knowledge from reading interesting books. In planning a trip to another country you can read all about the climate and interesting places so you will know just where you want to visit. Or, in taking a trip through the United States you can find out just where the most interesting scenes are located, and you will know just where to go next. You can also read about how you can improve your home and make it more comfortable. You read about important men of history and of the great things they have done. Sometimes you will read of some one whom you will like and you may pattern your own life after theirs. You can read about new inventions or discoveries in which you are interested or about new plants that have just been discovered.

The County Library may be established by the Library board's filing a notice with the board of county commissioners of the county to extend service to all the people in the county.

The tax amount is decided after the establishment of the library. It will not be more than ten cents on each dollar, and will cost the average tax payer less than the cost of one good book or magazine subscription. The money is collected by the country treasurer and paid to the treasurer of the city or town to be held as a part of the library funds and to be paid out in the same manner. As long as ten percent of the inhabitants are users of the library, the tax will be continued. This tax gives the people of the county no property rights.

The commissioners select four members and add them to the city library board. The county commissioners appoint two and the county superintendent of schools appoints two. The appointees must be residents of some part of the county and must contribute a tax for this purpose. They will have the same qualifications and equal authority with other members of the public library. All questions are decided upon by the city board members unless it applies to the value of service given to county residents.

Other libraries established in the county may, with the consent of the county library board, become a part of the county system. They may remain as independent libraries and the county library will not have any effect on them.

Intelligence agents searched the area to determine whether any German civilians had been stricken.

The first German soldier became ill Monday shortly after the weekly bread ration was delivered from the bakery and distributed to the men, Colonel Williams said. Late Monday the number of men taken ill increased as the former soldiers began eating their ration.

The number soared until Wednesday, when the cause was determined and the prisoners were told not to eat their remaining bread, Williams said.

Seek Men who Inspire
Trust and Esteem

★ Four thousand years ago, practitioners of the healing arts were impelled to organize in order to shield the public from the impostures of quacks and charlatans. Similar organizations have been carried along the current of history to the present day. Today the great national associations of physicians, pharmacists, dentists, and nurses work separately and harmoniously to keep educational standards high, the impostors out.

You cannot exercise too great care in securing the advice of those whose ethical concepts inspire trust and esteem. When ill, consult a registered Doctor of Medicine. If medication is needed, bring your prescription to us.
